Mitchell Parker entered the Maine Osteopathic Hospital, Portland, on Thursday of this week for surgery.

Mrs. Alice Taylor has returned to her work at Dr. E. L. Brown's after being absent a few months because of illness.

Guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carson and Tamie last week was Mrs. Carson's mother, Mrs. Harland Campbell, of Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Farnum of Bryant Pond and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Willard visited Floyd Redman at Carmel on Sunday.

Attending the reception for Governor Curtis at Baldwin Terrace, Rumford, on Sunday, were Mrs. Walter Bond and Mrs. Paul Thurston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Packard entertained at a Mother's Day dinner, Mrs. Holmes Gould and Clinton Andrews of Lovell; Mr. and Mrs. John Grover Jr. and girls, East Stoneham; Richard Packard and Arvidas Foskusk of Boston.

Circle One, Women's Fellowship, will meet at the home of Mrs. Addison C. Saunders, May 24, at 9:30 to complete plans for the "new comers coffee". All members are urged to be present.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The town crew will be available Saturday morning the 20th for the clean-up campaign. Anyone having items to dispose of please contact the Town Office or the Manager's home. The Town Office will not be open Saturday.

At the May 1 meeting of the Selectmen it was voted to spend the T. R. I. money on the Chandler Hill Road and the State Aid Road will be continued on Route 35 toward Greenwood.

There will be a public meeting to discuss the formation of the Proposed Water District on May 25 at 7:30 p. m. in Odeon Hall. This meeting is required by State Statute. Attendance by the townspeople is strongly encouraged as this will be the only opportunity to ask questions before voting on the issue. The special town meeting will be held June 7. Voting on the Water District Article will be held during the day at the Fire Station. This has to be done by Australian ballot. During the evening of June 7 a town meeting will be held at Odeon Hall to vote other articles. These will include an ordinance against feeding pigeons in the village, an article to purchase a police car from surplus and an article asking for the funds that were left over last year in the Fire Station Construction Account. These funds ($1541) were to be carried forward to 1967 to complete minor work this year on the fire station but through an oversight the money was placed in surplus.

Elwyn N. Dickey

BETHUEL POPPY QUEEN—Janice Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bailey, Locke Mills Road, has been selected "Miss Poppy 1967". A sub-primary student at the Ethel Blabbe School, Janice will participate in the distribution of poppies on Poppy Day, Friday and Saturday, May 26 and 27, conducted by the American Legion Auxiliary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET MAY 23

The Bethuel Historical Society will meet at Bethuel Library at 7:30 p. m. on Tuesday, May 23. There will be a discussion of a possible home for the Society. Fred Wright will talk about early days on Bear River.

WEST BETHUEL CAR-TRAIN CRASH TAKES LIFE OF BETHUEL MAN, MONDAY

Gardner L. Brown of Eden Lane, Bethuel, was killed instantly when the car he was driving was struck by a train at the Ferry Road crossing, West Bethuel, early Monday afternoon.

State Trooper Haven Hutchinson, West Paris, stated that Mr. Brown was traveling westward on Route 2 and made a right turn onto the Ferry Road. He traveled approximately 50 feet, came into the tracks and the auto was hit on the right side by a Canadian National Railroad freight train which was heading in a westerly direction. Delmond G. Worth of Island Pond, Vt. was identified as the engineer of the train. The 1963 four-door sedan the victim was driving was demolished.

Reportedly witnesses at the scene of the 12:30 p. m. accident stated that the train had sounded its whistle.

Assisting in the investigation were State Troopers Gerry Smith, Bethuel, and Norman Auger, Harlow, Sgt. Albert Jamison, Auburn, Oxford County Deputy Sheriff George Gilbert of Bethuel, and Dr. Walter Dixon, Norway, medical examiner.

The crossing is marked by a sign but there are no audible or flashing signals at the site. The crossing was the scene of a train-car accident on March 12, 1959 that resulted in the death of two. LeRoy Bush Sr. was killed instantly and Mrs. Beatrice Osgood died two days later in a Berlin hospital.

Mr. Brown was born Oct. 21, 1909, at Albany, the son of the late Herman and Mary Kimball Brown. He was a member of Bethuel Lodge AF and AM, Scotch Rite Bodies, Lewiston, Maine Chapter 22nd Degree, Portland, and Rara Shinar Temple. A life-long resident of Bethuel, Mr. Brown was employed by Newton Telephone at West Bethuel. For several years he owned and operated the Bethuel Tidy Station.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Mary Brown of Bethuel, his wife, Mrs. Marie Chapman Brown of Bethuel, a son, Leonard, a grandson, a grand-daughter, two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Grover and Mrs. Martha van Zant, both of Bethuel, and a brother, Richard, of West Bethuel.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the West Paris (Congregational) Church, Rev. Clifford Laws of Bethuel officiating. Burial was in the Bethuel Cemetery.

FRIDAY, MAY 26

Coach Orville Anderson was honored at a banquet Saturday, May 13 at the Gehring Conference House.

Eighty Gould alumni and coaches gathered to pay tribute to the popular coach and director of athletics who will retire this June after 29 years of coaching and teaching at the Academy. "Andy" or "Coach" as he is fondly called by those who have shared his exceptional career in Gould athletics was presented a scrapbook including a volume of letters, telegrams and pictures of his teams by Headmaster Edmund Vachon. Highlight of the informal evening was the warm exchange of reminiscing made possible by the return of many of Andy's earliest team members. Games were replayed, championships reviewed and great moments relived as all present bore proof of Coach Anderson's unique position in Gould Academy's athletic history.

ANDOVER-E. ANDOVER

— Mrs. Violet Swain, Corres. —

All twelve members of the East Andover Community Club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Hall on May 9. Reports were read and accepted. The secretary reported sending get-well cards to James Hines and Troy White and a birthday card to Mrs. Amanda Gosselin. A thank-you note was read from Ira Gammon Sr.

Chairman of the rummage sale, Mrs. Robert B. Swain, turned over approximately $58.00 from the sale held last week.

The president authorized the treasurer to take care of presenting Mrs. Ann Fox, treasurer of the Congregational Building Fund the sum of $50.00 and to give to Prin. Dean McCrillis the annual $5.00 prize to be awarded to a member of the senior class at the graduation exercises.

It was noted that two of the Senior Citizens of the community will be observing birthdays later this month. Milton Crossman will be 87 on May 23 and R. J. Swain will be 85 on May 30.

The June 13 meeting will be with Mrs. Orville Meisner. There were no birthdays to honor so Mrs. Theodore Conrad cut the cake in honor of her seventh anniversary.

Meeting adjourned and mystery sister gifts for Mother's Day were given out, games enjoyed and refreshments served by the hostess.

Fourteen members of the Andover Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Herman Sauret on May 9. The group enjoyed a potluck supper before the meeting. A report was given on a successful Attic Treasures Sale and Auction held recently. More School Record Books have arrived and if anyone is interested in purchasing one contact a Women's Club member. Voted the sum of $100.00 for the Congregational Building Fund and $15.00 to the Senior Class if they have a trip or outing. The group will assist the Ladies Aid of the Congregational Church in serving the Alumni Banquet which will be June 10. There are plans for the group to go to Lakewood to see a play in June which will omit the June meeting. Mrs. Raymond Akers and Mrs. Bernard Hutchins were on the program committee.

Leon Akers, President of the Pinedale Ski Club, has taken the plastic splints and stretchers that belong to the club and placed them at the Fire Station, for use by anyone, if needed.

The second clinic will be held at the Town Hall on May 25. Parents are asked to be at the hall at 8:45 A. M.

Robert B. Swain attended the Lettermen's Banquet held at Gould Academy on May 10. Father of students who have received varsity letters were invited to this annual banquet with their sons.

The fish fry for the benefit of the Congregational Church Building Fund will be held on May 20 beginning at 5:30-7:00 P. M. Chairman will be Roger Mills Sr.

Andover Congregational Church Youth Group helped out at the morning service on Mother's Day. Helping make the corsages that were given to women in the congregation were Mrs. John Richardson, Mrs. Donald French, Mrs. Lester Farrington, Betty Sidelinger, Joan Richardson, Donna French, Debbie French and Debbie Cayer; taking the morning offering, Ross Swain and Tom Sauter; pinning on the corsages, Toni Conrad, Betty Sidelinger, and Donna Morgan.

The Congregational Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Waldo Merrill on May 11 with 13 present. Mrs. Merrill reported about the recent conference that she attended. The group tied two quilts and cards were sent out to James Hines, William Simmons, Sr., Mrs. Robert Dunn and Mrs. Harry Merrill. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ralph Hewey on May 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Greenlow have received word that his grandson, David Huntington, has been chosen by a committee on awards to be one of four men to present a part at the Bowdoin College commencement on June 10 where he majored in History. Mr. and Mrs. Greenlow plan to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Mills, Jr. and their son, Phillip, have attended the graduation exercises of Miss Margaret (Peggy) Mills from the Fanny Farmer School in Boston. They motored to Salem, N. H., on May 11 where they spent the night with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wilson and family, going into Boston on the following day.

Miss Margaret Smith has completed her second year at New Brunswick Bible Institute at Victoria, N. B., Canada, and is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, South Andover.

The Andover Friday Club held guest night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Percival on May 12. There were 15 in attendance. A buffet was served at 7 p. m. Following the dinner movies were shown by the host of the Satellite Station, National Cross Country and scenes from the lake area. Discussed the Oxford County Literary meeting to be held at Rumford Point, May 16. The annual meeting and banquet will be held on June 2 at the Andover Town Hall at 6 p. m. with the East Andover Community Club serving. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Learned, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Graves, Mrs. Arthur Lang, Mrs. Theodore Gonyea, William French and the host and hostess.

Sidney Palmer celebrated his 63rd birthday at his home on Newton Street on May 6.

Eleven youngsters have registered for the Telstar Day Camp to be held at the Chapman Site, Dixfield, July 17-21, 9-15 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Mrs. Frank Morgan and Mrs. John Ricker registered the Scouts. They will join other Scouts from Bethel, Canton, Dixfield, Hanover, Mexico and Rumford.

Mrs. Donald French and Mrs. Sylvanus Glover attended the Tuesday Morning Bombardiers candlepin bowling club's second annual banquet at Madison's in Rumford on May 11.

The three trucks of the Andover fire department were called to a fire on May 11 at Maine Hardwood, Inc., owned by Raymond Akers. A row of old horse sheds, used for stock and machinery, burned. Estimated loss $1,000. The mill is on the old Andover fire grounds. The fire started from a grass fire of unknown origin. The trucks were called out at 4:55 p. m. and returned at 6:45 p. m. On May 13 the department was called out again to the same mill for a slab pile fire. No damage reported. Fire Chief Roger Mills, Jr., reported that besides these two fires the trucks were also called out this week to a dump fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Glover spent last week end with their daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Hall in Ashburnham, Mass. Their youngest daughter, Mrs. Gary Marston and Michelle accompanied them and stayed this week in Massachusetts. They plan to return this week end accompanied by Mrs. Hall and the children.

Donald Smith spent a few days last week visiting with his brother, Philip, in Stafford Springs, Conn. Mrs. Sidney Jones, Laura and Sidney, accompanied him to Connecticut and visited with relatives in Wallingford.

More names have been added to the Congregational Building Fund: Evelyn Smith Driggers, Rena Spidell, Betsey Poor Fisher, Neal and Jean Badwell, Geneva B. Amber, Charles Mont Poor, Ralph and Alma Hewey, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ricker, Andover Women's Club and The East Andover Community Club.

CPL. CHESTER L. HOPKINS

George Hopkins received word from the U. S. Defense Department, Monday, informing him that his son, U. S. Marine Col. Chester L. Hopkins, 29, died Sunday of wounds received from the explosion of a hostile mine in Vietnam.

He was born in Rumford, Dec. 21, 1938, the son of George and Bernice Libby Hopkins and graduated from Woodstock High School in the class of 1959. Cpl. Hopkins lived for three years at the home of Andrew Hawkins, Greenwood, prior to entering the service June 23, 1963.

Surviving besides his father are his mother, of North Norway; seven brothers, SP 4 George Jr., serving with the U. S. Army in Germany, Pfc. Albert, serving with the U. S. Army in Vietnam, Charles of Turner, Willard of South Portland, Bernard and Paul, both of Greene, and Claude of Rumford.

Funeral services will be held at the I. W. Andrews & Son Funeral Home, South Woodstock, date and time to be announced later.

MT. ABRAHAM 4-H CLUB TO SPONSOR LOCKE MILLS CLEAN-UP ON MAY 27

MT. ABRAHAM 4-H Club members are sponsoring a clean-up day for the village of Locke Mills. They are enlisting the aid of all local organizations which include the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Locke Mills Men's Club, the Locke Mills Community Club, the Locke Mills Youth Group, the Jackson-Silver American Legion Post and Unit, as well as town officials.

All residents are urged to clean up their yards and grounds around their homes during the week of May 22 to May 27 (Saturday). The 4-H members have scheduled teams of volunteers to pick-up any trash or litter on the highway or roads within the village area. The school yard, and other town or public buildings. Residents will also have litter and debris pick-up service on that day if they will place same near their driveways. Because this is a volunteer service and equipment is limited it is requested that no single item weigh more than 25 pounds.

The pick-up service will be in the following areas of the village: Mt. Abraham Road and side to railroad tracks, the
